

THE

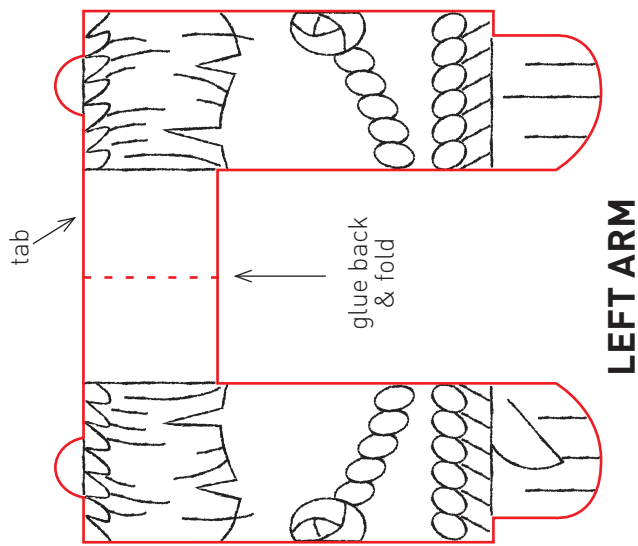

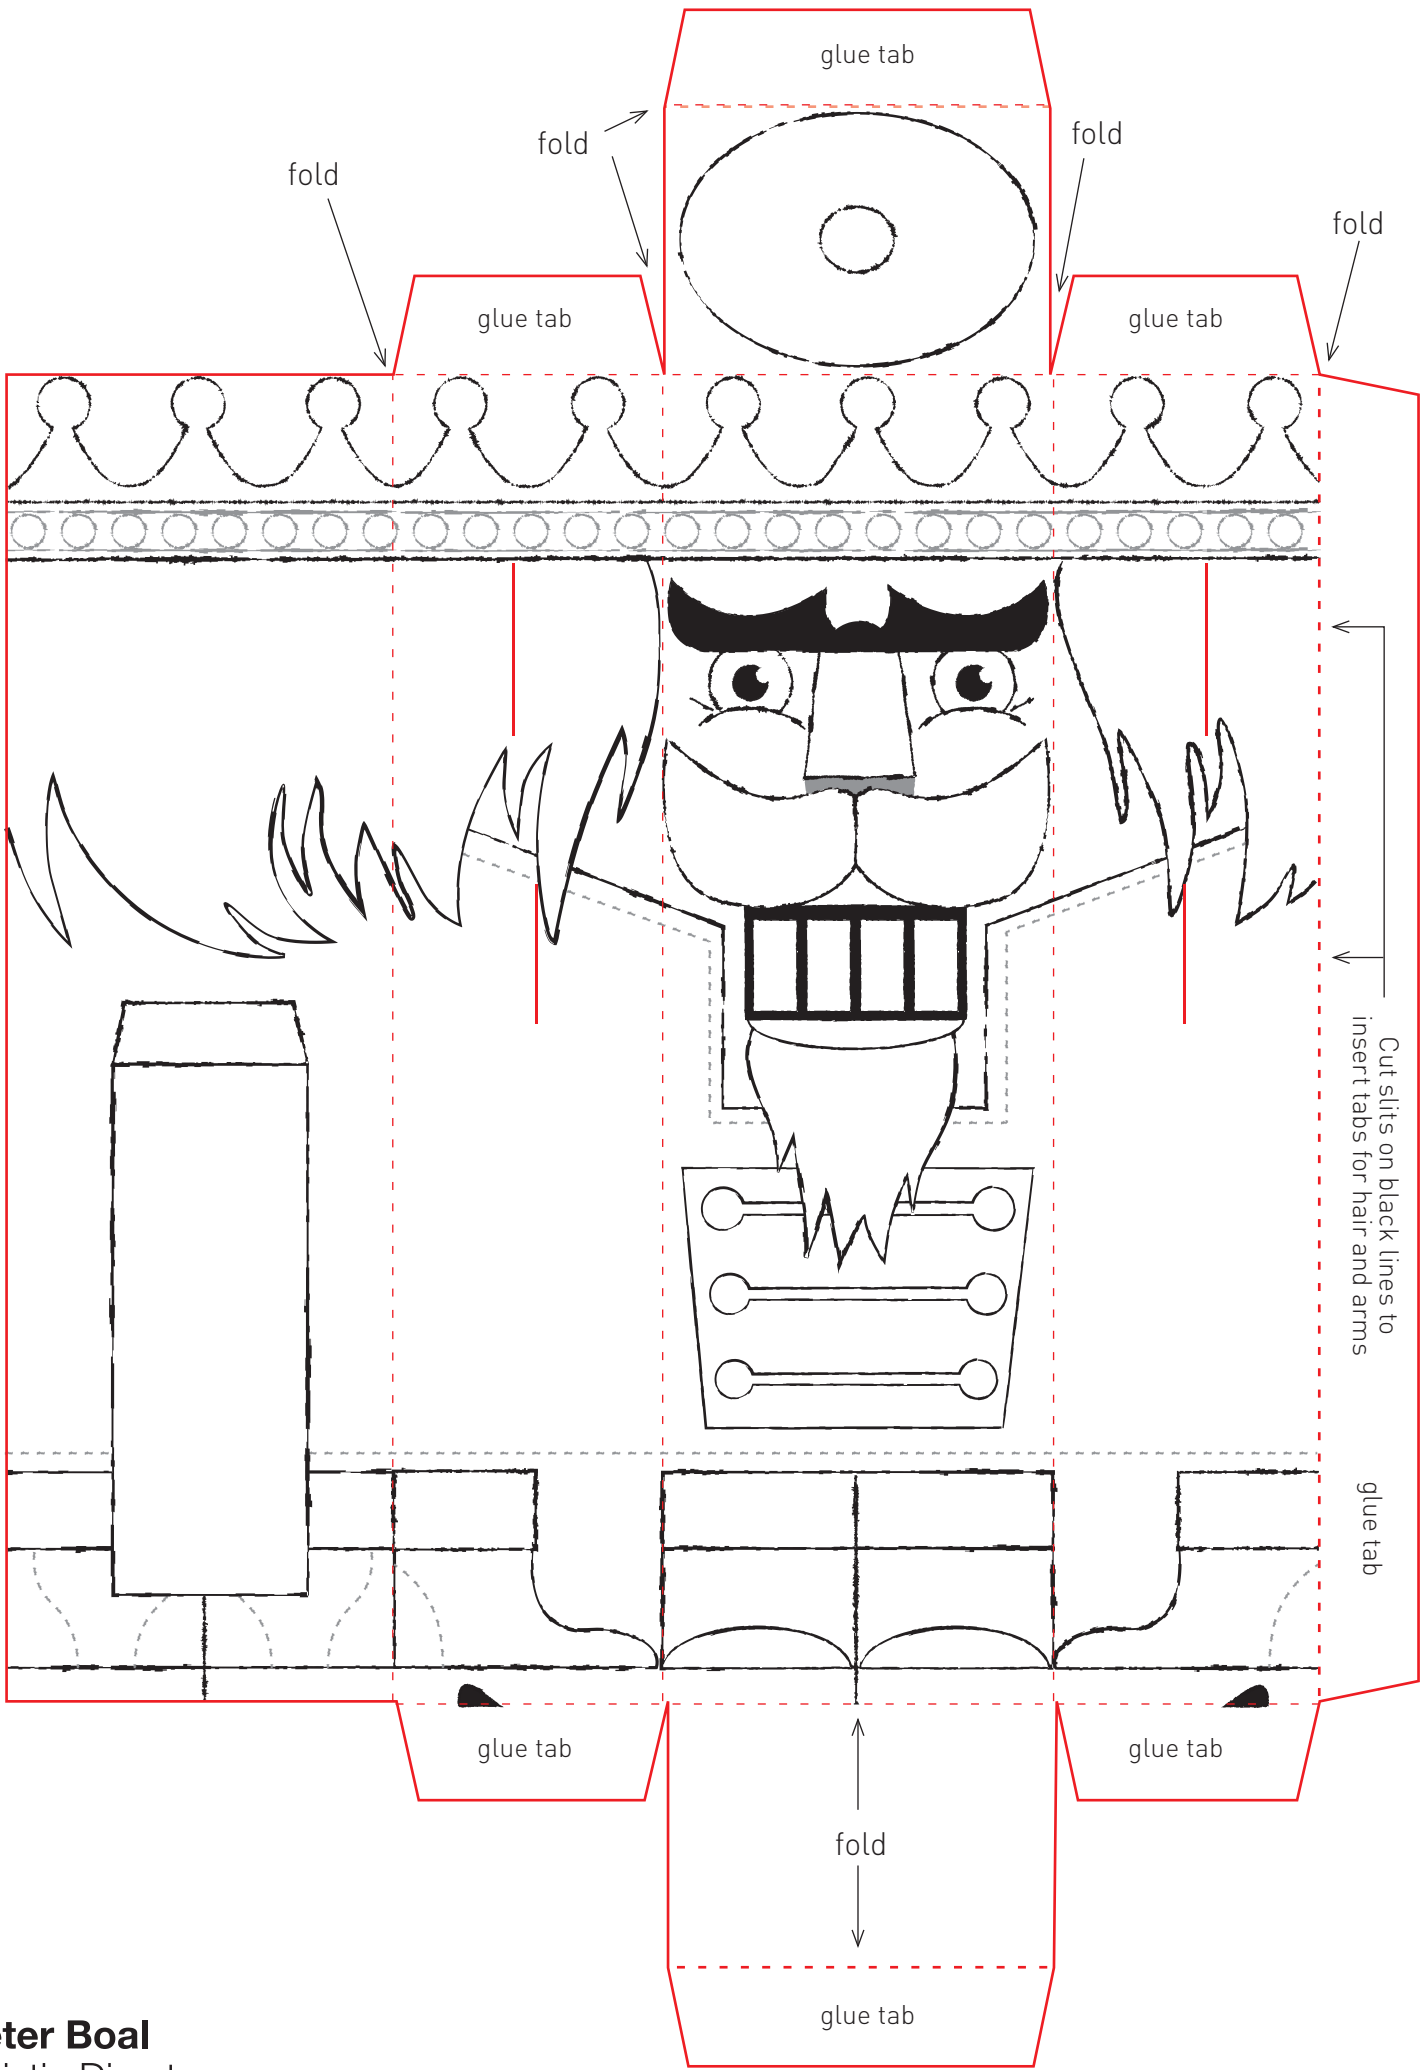

GEORGE BALANCHINE'S

The Seattle
Times

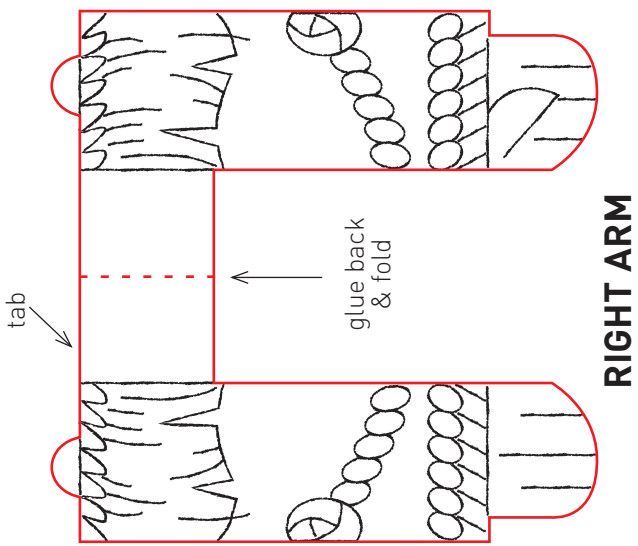

NUTCRACKER[®]

PNB

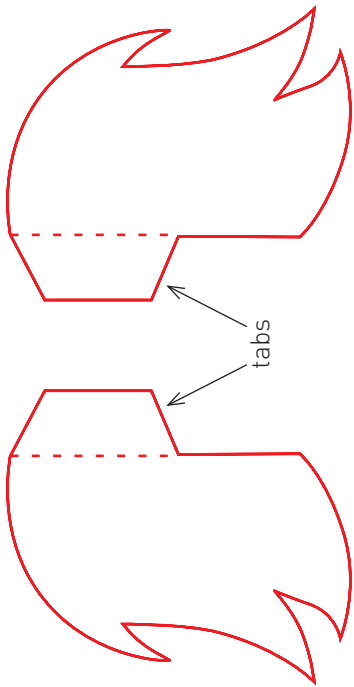

Peter Boal
Artistic Director

LEFT ARM

RIGHT ARM

LEFT HAIR

RIGHT HAIR

COLOR AND BUILD YOUR OWN
NUTCRACKER DOLL

DIRECTIONS

- NOTE: To make figure sturdier, you may paste pieces on to heavy paper before trimming or print our online version on heavier stock (stepromos.com/papernutcracker2017).
1. Color and decorate your Nutcracker—get creative!
 2. Trim out all pieces with scissors or a hobby knife.
 3. Cut slits for the arms and hair on body (red lines on figure's sides).
 4. Fold arms in half, glue and insert into slits. Insert hair into slits.
 5. Fold and secure arm and hair tabs with tape or glue on the inside of main body.
 6. Assemble and glue the main figure by folding tabs and along lines. Secure back to front with tape or glue.
 7. Fold up tabs at base and top of body Tape or glue the to the interior walls for stability.
- Share your creativity a chance to win tickets to The Nutcracker! Post a photo of your doll to Instagram or Twitter using #papernutcracker and tag Pacific Northwest Ballet and The Seattle Times. Or, send your photo to contest@seattletimes.com and we'll upload it.
- For complete contest rules, visit stepromos.com/papernutcracker2017.

PAPER NUTCRACKER ILLUSTRATION
BY DALTON WEBB / THE SEATTLE TIMES
DESKTOP DOLL TEMPLATE DESIGN COURTESY OF THE DENVER POST

MAKE A Holiday memory
TO LAST
A Lifetime!

PACIFIC NORTHWEST BALLET

GEORGE BALANCHINE'S

THE NUTCRACKER

TITLE SPONSOR

Alaska
AIRLINES

Original artwork by Ian Falconer.

NOV 24–DEC 28

MCCAW HALL
@ SEATTLE CENTER

PNB.ORG

206.441.2424

CHIHULY
STUDIO

KOMO 4

The Seattle Times

PNB

Peter Boal
Artistic Director